TULIA COUPLE QUIZZED IN HAPPY HEIST

Barely visible in his right hand is a piece of chalk he used to map plays on the gym floor.

Cool Hamlin Cops Disarm Gunwoman

BY TROY MARTIN

An ex-policeman from Tulia, his wife and a young companion captured three weeks ago at gunpoint in Hamlin are under investigation in connection with the October robbery of First State Bank of Happy.

Mark Layton Lindsey, 30 years old; his wife, Lyndell Beth, 27; and Billy Martin Hicks, 20, were nabbed by two alert Hamlin policemen in an epic collar that might have come straight from the pages of Bonnie and Clyde.

Texas Rangers and FBI agents have quizzed the trio in connection with the Happy robbery but have said only that no formal charges have been filed.

Hamlin Police Chief Bryan Wasson gives a graphic account of how Patrolmen Homer Dill and James Kerby captured the trio.

Dill and Kerby were on routine patrol the night of Dec. 14 when they noticed a ladder up against a building adjacent Hamlin Farmers and Merchants National Bank.

They investigated and became even more suspicious when they saw a foot sticking out from behind an air conditioner on the building.

They stepped out of their patrol car, pulled their guns and shouted, "Come out!"

Nothing happened. Kerby pulled a shotgun and cocked it. The snick of the gun being cocked must have carried through the December air because in the next instant a pistol came flying from behind the air conditioner and a man stepped out.

Kerby spotted another leg. He ordered the second man to come out and when the man refused, told him that if he did not obey he would begin shooting.

The second man came out.

The two suspects, who turned out to be Lindsey and Hicks, were handcuffed.

Wasson said that at about that time a woman sped up and jumped out of a Pontiac Station Wagon with an M1 Carbine.

He said she levelled down on the officers with the weapon.

"Let them go," he quoted her as having told Kerby and Dill.

Kerby turned around to her with the shotgun.

"Put that gun down or I'll blow you in two," he told her.

Wasson said the woman, later identified as Mrs. Lindsy, meekly obeyed.

"If she had gotten there before the officers got handcuffs on the other two, one of the officers might have been killed," Wasson speculates.

The police chief said all three gave Coleman as their address but said Lindsey has been a policeman several places including Tulia.

He reported that all three were indicted Monday by a Jones County grand jury on three counts including con-

Be Specific On Calls For Tickets

If you wait until the last minute to obtain tickets to watch the "Maroon Madness" basketball squad from West Texas State University, make sure you telephone the right number in Amarillo.

Frank Kimbrough, WTSU assistant athletic director, said many people are telephoning the Amarillo Civic Center and are being referred to everything from "hockey tickets to the Junior League."

"The telephone number is 373-0052, but you have to specifically ask for the WTSU basketball ticket office," Kimbrough said. "The office opens at 9 a.m. on the day of a home game."

Buffs To Meet In Super Bowl

BY SAM ALLRED

When the "best of the best" face each other January 17 in the Super Bowl, West Texas State University Head Coach Joe Kerbel will have the unique experience of having a "star" graduate on each team.

WTSU has produced excellent football players in the last decade, but perhaps none has shown so brilliantly later in the professional ranks as Jerry Don Logan of the Baltimore Colts and Duane Thomas of the Dallas Cowboys.

"Jerry Don and Duane have several things in common," Kerbel said Tuesday. "They are great athletes and have natural football perception. . . the instinctive approach to the game."

The only problem Kerbel has in discussing the two men who best illustrate his coaching techniques is a lack of modesty-forbidding adjectives. "Great". . . "tremendous". . . "excellent" and "superlative" appear frequently in his speech.

"Jerry Don was already here when we came and although he was not exceptionally big I could see he was a great athlete and going to be even better."

Logan, who did everything for WTSU during the 1960-61-62 seasons but coach the freshman, wasn't all that impressive when Kerbel first observed him suiting up.

"He was unusual in his development in the fact he was almost unsung coming out of high school," Kerbel said. "When I first came he wasn't pointed out to me as one of the 'good' ones. We considered letting his scholarship terminate because of his size."

In fairy tales and college athletics things are supposed to work out for the best, so Logan was not dropped and went on to become

County Seeking New Road Boss

Members of commissioners court Monday discussed hiring of a road superintendent and authorized the placing of advertisements for hiring such a person.

The Monday meeting was the first for County Judge Woody Pond and Commissioner John Fulgenzi.

Fulgenzi, himself an engineer, suggested that the court try to hire a retired project superintendent. He said this might cost the county about $700 a month in salary while a younger man in this capacity could be expected to cost $12,000 a year or more.

Commissioner Bill Butler said the man hired will be in charge of personnel, equipment maintenance and construction and maintenance of county roads.

Judge Pond said there has been one application for the job already.

County Clerk LeRoy Hutton told the court he thinks any special legislation governing salaries of Potter County employes should also apply to Randall County. He pointed out that Randall may soon have more population than Potter and should remain in a competitive position in the labor market.

Judge Pond told Hutton that this would be discussed

Open Fires Dangerous

A warning against use of an open fire in an unventilated house was issued Tuesday by Dr. Dudley Moore, county health officer.

An open flame burns up all the oxygen in a house and can cause carbon monoxide poisoning, Dr. Moore said.

The use of unventilated stoves is particularly dangerous at this time of year, he declared.

The best way to prevent carbon monoxide poisoning is to vent the stove through a vent pipe. If using an unventilated stove, a window should be opened to allow fresh oxygen to enter, Dr. Moore said.

Chamber Plans Member Campaign

Canyon Chamber of Commerce will kick off its annual membership drive some time this month with a breakfast in the Community Center Building.

Chamber President Eddie Knowles told a regular meeting of the board that a coffee will be held some afternoon to solicit the support of the Women's Division of the Chamber.

Membership committee is made up of Knowles, Eddie Holcomb, Kenneth Thompson, and David West. This group will work out final details for the drive.

The board Monday night heard a financial report from Manager Roland Black. Income for 1970 was $13,866.99 with a Dec. 31, 1969 balance of $53.84 for a total of $13,866.99 cash available during the year.

Expenditures for the year were $13,125.94 leaving a year-end balance of $794.89.

Dr. Charles Jarvis will be the Chamber banquet speaker in a program to be held at

On Free School Lunch

New Policy Set

Canyon School System this week announced new policy and guidelines for free lunches or lunches at a reduced price for underprivileged students.

The guidelines and policy were issued in compliance with directives from the Texas Education Agency, according to School Supt. Jerry Jacobs.

The school system also was required to announce the new policy and guidelines through a news release to The Canyon News.

Jacobs said free lunches or lunches at reduced prices will be provided by the school system based on family income, size of family and number of children in school.

Jacobs was directed to send to parents charts showing income and family size categories qualifying students for free lunches or lunches at reduced prices.

Jacobs said all Canyon schools, except Umbarger Elementary School, serve a well-balanced, nutritious lunch each school day.

He said the charge to students who can pay is 40 cents in the elementary schools, 45 cents in junior high, and 50 cents in high school.

"However, since some families find it difficult to pay the full price, the school will provide lunches free or at a reduced price to children determined by the principal of each school to be unable to pay the full price for their lunches," Jacobs declared.

He said families who feel

Academic Trouble For WT Students

A total of 1,435 students at West Texas State University finished the Fall semester in academic trouble, according to figures released Wednesday by the Academic Vice President.

Dr. Walter Juniper said that 720 students were suspended at the end of the semester and 715 were placed on academic probation. These figures compare roughly with figures for the same semester in 1969.

"There were 626 students suspended one year ago, which shows a slight increase," Dr. Juniper said. "But there were 1,003 placed on academic probation, which is a tremendous decrease."

The vice president said the figures were not particularly startling.

"In an institution of our kind, where a strong degree of selective admissions is not practiced, then a certain

18-year-olds

Registration Is Slow

BY CAROL CRAIN

Only 23 persons 18 years of age have made application at the Randall County Court House to vote since given that right federally a few days ago.

Amarillo reports 76 persons have signed the simple form which asked for name, age, sex, birthdate, address, length of residence, and signature.

Unless a special federal election is called it will be 1972 before the 18 year old vote will be felt on the national level.

Their force will then be eligible to cast votes for the President, Vice President, and Congressmen, but in Texas, they will have to wait until they are 21 to vote in state, county, and local elections.

Some Canyon High School seniors were asked to give their opinions on their new right. The students polled are either already 18 or will be within a few months. Here are some of their opinions.

"I think it's good to get kids involved," Cindy Friemel stated. "They should be able to help determine their own future...or try to."

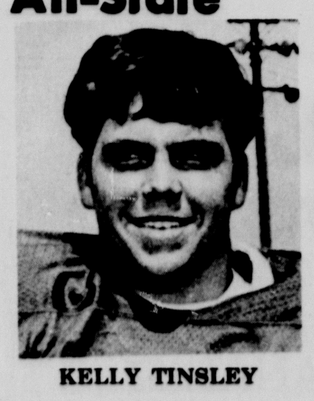
"At 18," she continued, "people are more informed than they were 20 years ago because of classroom studies, television, and newspapers."

Brenda Shell, who will be 18 in July said, "It's great, if we use it. That's what democracy is all about. But, most don't even vote at school, so what will they get involved

(see REGISTRATION, page 9)

Cindy Friemel, 18-year-old deputy in the county Tax Assessor-Collector's office, makes sure that Bruce Crager, son of Mrs. Ada Crager, correctly fills out the 18-year-olds' voter registration form. So far, only 23 Canyon residents within that age group have filled out the simple form.

Tinsley On Telegram's All-State



KELLY TINSLEY

Kelly Tinsley has been named to the Fort Worth Star-Telegram all-state football team.

This is the latest of many football honors to come to the big Eagle linesman in recent weeks.

Kelly made all-district the past two years and was voted lineman of the year for the area in AAA football.

Although Tinsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tinsley, hasn't decided on which school he will attend next year he has been one of the

Bitter Cold Hits City, Panhandle

Plummeting temperatures and a persistent wind kept the weather unfit for man nor beast during most of the week, but Randall County was spared most of the force of the blizzard that blew into the area Sunday.

Although Canyon felt the edges of the -4 degree temperature recorded by Amarillo Wednesday morning, remaining a "shade" higher in temperature, even that was a relief from -42 degrees in chill factors that was previously recorded.

The blizzard Sunday played havoc with regional highways, stranding motorists by the hundreds, but area law enforcement officials said Randall County was spared a majority of the inconvenience.

"We did not have any roads closed or any reports of motorists stranded," said DPS Patrolman Ron Boyter. "Traffic accidents that could be contributed to the storm remained at a minimum."

The Randall County Sheriff's office reported that most residents survived the storm with all the tenacity of pioneer forefathers, as officers maintained routine patrols.

Although the area averaged four inches of snow, most of it had melted by late Wednesday except where gusting winds had piled monumental snowdrifts.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Canyon Chamber of Commerce will be opening a membership drive this month.

There ought to be no trouble at all in getting membership dues from at least three business categories.

These are restaurants, tourist courts and service stations. The Chamber last year spent almost 25 percent of its entire budget on tourist development.

Out of $13,125.94 in expenditures, $2,942.89 was spent in attracting tourists to Canyon. The people most likely to benefit from tourist trade are restaurants, tourist courts and service stations.

The Chamber's biggest promotion for 1970 was Canyon Days last summer. This promotion brought hundreds of people to town. These people must have spent some money on food and gasoline.

Normally the Chamber manages to schedule two or three high school football play off games. This brings several thousand fans to our community. While they are here they must eat and buy gasoline and some of them even stay overnight in motels.

I would also think that Chamber of Commerce membership would be a good deal for apartment house operators. Chamber Manager Roland Black is a point of contact for new people coming to Canyon. He usually directs them to a place they can obtain housing. Surely this is worth the support of people who have housing rentals to offer.

Mrs. Audrey Bruse, county tax assessor-collector, asked commissioners court Monday to accept a high bid for filing cabinets for her office because the two lower bidders could not supply the exact color to match other furniture.

The difference in the high bid and the lowest bid is $33—more than 15 percent higher. The low bidder voided his bid because he was unable to supply the color requested.

I agree with freshman Commissioner John Fulgenzi that if the request is granted the first company to supply a piece of furniture for an office in the court house could "lock in" on all the furniture business for that office.

The color scheme could be such that only the original supplier could furnish the exact matching colors. If color is used as a specification it could rule out all other suppliers.

Such a buying policy could cost the county a lot more than $33 in years to come.

It looks like the county and the city may settle two of their major points of contention.

I think the city is going to accept the county's offer to fight rural fires in return for use of the couny jail and police communications network.

These have been bones of contention at least for the 10 years I have lived in Canyon. I think it is a fair swap and both the city and the county will gain from it.

The only thing I can think of offhand over which the two governmental entities might dispute now is the dump ground. County folks continue to use it and as far as I know the city is still paying all the bill for maintaining it.

One thing in life I have never regretted is the profession I chose.

If I could start over again I still would be a working newspaperman. A few times over the years I have been cast in an executive position in which my main job was to direct the efforts of others.

I never really liked this. The days of a reporter often stretch from 6 o'clock in the morning until well after 10 in the evening. He is often called out in the bitter cold of the late night or early morning but he is in the thick of things and that is something I wouldn't trade.

I have enjoyed the last quarter century immensely because I have been allowed to be in the midst of the history of the Panhandle and sometimes even of the state and nation during that time.

I never walk into a meeting, I never top the rise of a hill or board an airplane that I am not intensely aware that in the next moment I might be recording something of earthshaking importance.

No sir, I wouldn't trade jobs with anyone.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Troy,

Just a note to tell you that we look forward to your paper which arrives on Saturday morning; it is always a pleasure to read of the happenings in Canyon. Sometimes it brings sorrowful news, and sometimes it brings happy news; but always it is appreciated.

A sentence from your last paper — "and Grady Hazelwood attended a 42 party in the Dodson home" — reminded me that I had intended long before this time to write to you and the people of the 31st Senatorial District concerning Grady's work for us in that district. As a new citizen of Austin, I have surely been pleased and proud to find in what esteem and respect our senator for thirty years from the Panhandle, Honorable Grady Hazelwood, is held by the citizens of this city and throughout the state. He has established an enviable legislative record for his district, and for the entire state of Texas. He is recognized as a statesman of the first order and is highly respected by his fellow legislators and by all in the state government who have had the privilege of working with him during this period.

Senator Hazelwood, as all of you in his district well know, has been ably supported by his charming wife, Andrene; she has been a great asset to him in all that he has done for the betterment of the district. Together they have made a powerful team working for the welfare of their people of the Panhandle.

Grady leaves his office with the best wishes of all who have shared his concern for our state government, and "The Ole Grey Fox" will be missed in the halls of the State Capitol.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Irby Carruth

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

The average American has been accused of spending his health to get wealth, and then spending his wealth in a vain attempt to regain his health. What a sad picture! If this goal is so important, what constitutes wealth anyway?

The national economists say wealth is that which is added to the Gross National Product. Americans enjoy an unprecedented standard of living, and control the majority of the personal possessions of the earth. Are Americans wealthy?

Man has proved through Russia, Red China, Castro's Cuba, and our own foreign aid and welfare programs that wealth cannot be created by taking money away from the people who earn it and giving it to someone else. It melts like snow in the hands of the recipients, and the process cools the productive ardor of the workers.

Could we say that wealth can be created by producing the most value for the most people so that everyone can share in proportion as he adds to the general welfare?

Do we gauge a nation's wealth by the gold, silver, and precious gems stored in its vaults, or by the benefits available to its citizens? By the latter criterion the United States is far ahead of any other country.

And these benefits have not accrued from richer soil, greater natural resources, or pleasant climate. They are the result of the dynamic forces generated by the energy, courage, and vision of individual men voluntarily cooperating and competing with each other. Private enterprise has proved to be the most powerfully productive system on earth.

Statistics show that the majority of hippies come from broken homes, but an alarming number come from average middle-class families. Many social dropouts contend that their parents slave away the best years of their lives preparing for retirement. So, they argue, if retirement is the goal of life, why not retire now?

(Every society has always had its bums. But only America has made being a bum a "respectable profession," and demanded that the workers support the drones — in dignity.)

Women never retire; that is the reason they outlive men. But the men who do live to retirement age usually find that the joy is not in the arriving but in the striving.

John D. Rockefeller said, "When work goes out of style we may expect to see civilization totter and fall." Is it surprising that children reared in a home whose apparent goal is idleness, find a shortcut to that goal?

So what is wealth? Is it really that which enables a person to live in idleness? If it is, perhaps the shaggy loafers really are hep, and the workers are the foolish ones.

An 8-year-old wrote a letter to God asking for money trees "so there would not be any poor people." Would sudden riches solve all our problems?

Millionaire farmers would quit plowing and sowing — so there would be no reaping. Rich bakers and canners would not bake or can. Rich sheep men would not shear sheep. Millionaires would not mine coal or make cloth. Rich shopkeepers would close up shop. So we would all stay cold and hungry until we learned that money is useless unless goods that it will buy are produced for sale.

Wealth, like electricity, is a bit difficult to define. In the middle of a burning desert, wealth would be water. In a besieged city, wealth would be food. In the frozen arctic, wealth would be fuel. But wealth is certainly not money; money is only a medium of exchange.

Someone has said that wealth is what a man has left when his money is all gone.

Is one not wealthy who is happy, contented, and has found a useful place in the eternal scheme of things? If so, wealth is available to everyone — who is willing to work for it.

Sentenced On Forgery

Clayton G. Satterfield, 32, of 1509 N. Spring in Amarillo, was sentenced to four years in the state penitentiary Monday after pleading guilty in 47th District Court to a charge of forgery.

Judge E. E. "Gene" Jordan imposed the sentence after the defendant admitted forging a credit card invoice in the amount of $128.47 at an Amarillo service station.

Judge Jordan ordered the sentence to run concurrently with a four-year probated sentence that is in the process of being revoked in Potter County.

That's the way things get done...together. Today's progress is proof of yesterday's determination and solidarity. Tomorow can be a wonderful new era...for our community. We are proud to work with, and to serve, the good people of Canyon.

1971. You've changed. We've changed.

Change. That's what it's all about this year. And that's what we mean by putting you first.

These are uneasy times.

There are major concerns. About pollution. About safety. About the economy. About your hard-earned dollar. We know.

For the past 10 years Chevrolet research people have questioned thousands of people on every subject from rising taxes to the size of the glovebox in their cars.

We've found that price and maintenance costs, trade-in value and quality have become tremendously important.

Your car has to work. It has to last. And each new model must have more built-in value.

At Chevrolet, we understand.

You want meaningful change. And our aim is to give that to you, as you'll see in the 1971 Chevrolets.

Caprice. The biggest, most luxurious Chevrolet ever. A complete change.

Bigness in itself is nothing.

But if it allows you to lengthen the distance between the front and rear wheels (which we did), then you've got something.

You've got a smoother ride.

The idea in the 1971 Caprice was to give you the looks and comfort of a six- or seven-thousand-dollar car, without asking you to pay anywhere near that much for it. And above all, to build in as much dependability and security as possible.

So we changed the body structure for 1971, too, We made it stronger. And we made it quieter by putting a double layer of steel in the roof.

Caprice, as you can see below, is a lot of luxury at a Chevrolet price.

Vega. The littlest Chevy ever. It wasn't changed from anything.

Before building Vega, we read everything we could get our hands on about little cars. We talked to owners. We studied little cars up one side and down the other and, literally, tore them apart. We found out what made them tick, or why they didn't tick.

What ticked were gas economy and dependability. What didn't were underpowered engines, cramped quarters and getting blown around in the wind.

In our little Vega, everything ticks. It's not just another little car. You didn't want that. It's one little car that does everything well.

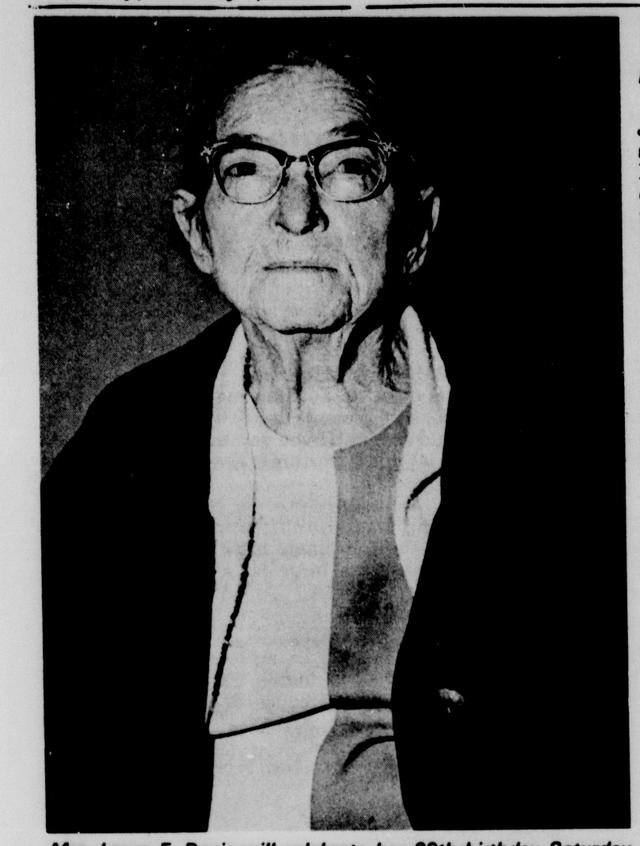
GM MARK OF EXCELLENCE



Mrs. Laura E. Davis will celebrate her 89th birthday Saturday. She was born in Tuscaloosa County, Alabama January 9, 1882. She moved to Canyon in November 1957. Mrs. Davis is a member of the First Baptist Church, the Rebecca Sunday School Class, the Social Pioneers, and the Canyon Mother-In-Law Club.

Jordan Revokes Probation

Dist. Judge E.E. "Gene" Jordan Monday revoked the six-year probated term of Rip McAlpine, 25, and sentenced him to serve the term in the state penitentiary without credit for the time the defendant has served on probation.

McAlpine, formerly of 1315 Jackson in Amarillo, was convicted of possession of marijuana May 19, 1969 and given six year's probation. His appeal was denied May 13, 1970 at which time his probation began.

Dist. Atty. George Dowlen asked the probation be revoked for at least two violations of the defendant's probation order, that he would "work faithfully at employment" and that he would "not leave the confines of the state without the permission of the probation office."

In addition, Ralph Pray, an assistant adult probation officer, testified in 47th District Court that McAlpine had been convicted in justice of the peace court July 21, 1970 on a charge of public drunkenness.

Pray testified that McAlpine had made no effort to obtain or hold employment, and had not applied at businesses recommended by the probation office.

Under cross examination, Pray told Defense Attorney Robert Carnahan that although McAlpine has a bachelor's degree from the University of California at Los Angeles, Pray had recommended he apply for a job that paid $1.75 an hour as a laborer.

The probation officer also testified the defendant twice left the state without permission, going to Las Vegas August 14 and to Denver November 21.

Asked how he knew McAlpine went to Las Vegas, Pray said the defendant "chartered a jet from Las Vegas to Amarillo and failed to pay the $2,000 for the charter."

After Judge Jordan ruled McAlpine had "violated the terms of probation," Carnahan cited law stating the judge, at his own discretion, could give the defendant credit for time served on probation.

Dowlen reminded the court that the higher court's mandate affirming McAlpine's conviction had not returned until May 13, 1970 and that McAlpine had not officially been on probation until that time.

Judge Jordan said he saw "no merit in the suggestion that he (McAlpine) be allowed credit for any time he had served."

Carnahan gave notice in the courtroom of his client's intention to appeal the decision, and Judge Jordan ordered a $10,000 appeal bond set for the defendant.

Five Nominated For Scholarships

Five West Texas State University students are nominees for two national graduate fellowships in college teaching, Dr. Ray Malzahn, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, said today.

Three students, James. E. Couzzourt, 30, Roy L. Headlee, 26, and Miss Kathryn E. Holmes, 22, were nominated for Woodrow Wilson National Fellowships.

Headlee, senior biology major, and Miss Holmes, junior English education major, were honored again with selections for the Danforth Graduate Fellowship competition. Also selected were Ira Scott Downing, 22, and Johnie B. Sikes, 25.

Couzzourt, senior Spanish major from Boys Ranch, served as past president of Alpha Chi, national honorary scholastic fraternity. He also participates in the WTSU Anthropological Society and was a member of M.E.H.S.

Headlee of Perryton holds membership in Beta Beta Beta, honorary biology fraternity, the WTSU Anthropological Society and Alpha Chi.

Miss Holmes belongs to Alpha Chi, Mary E. Hudspeth Society and several education groups. A native of Gail, Tex., she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Holmes.

A Canyon native, Downing is a senior English major with numerous honors, including Alpha Chi and the Dean's Honor Roll. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Downing.

Sikes, also of Canyon, majors in biology. A senior, Sikes has membership in Beta Beta Beta and Alpha Chi.

The Woodrow Wilson Fellowship nominees from WTSU are among 372 graduating seniors chosen by 43 Texas colleges and universities this year. Scholarships will be awarded in February to 250 American and 50 Canadian students of outstanding ability who are considering careers as college teachers. In addition, 700 candidates will be designated finalists and recommended to graduate schools of their choice for financial aid.

In 1970-71, 42 Texas students received Wilson Fellowships. Five of them received the special Independent Study Awards, given to the 100 top candidates in the nation.

The Danforth Graduate Fellowship program, established in 1951, shares with the Wilson program the aim of encouraging outstanding college seniors and recent graduates to seek careers in college teaching.

Renewable for four years, the fellowship stipends range from $1,800 per academic year to $2,400 per calendar year for single individuals and $2,200 to $2,950 for married recipients.

Notification of winners will be given in the spring.

Rural Home Burglarized

The farm home of Dr. Tom Gerald was burglarized some time over the week end, according to Randall County Sheriff L.S. "Slim" Johnston.

Sheriff Johnston said the thieves gained entry by kicking open a back door to the house which is located in the northwest part of the county.

Johnston reported that about $700 worth of furniture including a divan, hat rack, several paintings and other items. He theorized that the thieves must have had a truck or van in which to haul away the loot.

The burglary was discovered Sunday by Dr. Gerald, an Amarillo dentist. Officers believe the house was entered Friday or Saturday.

Randall County officers already were investigating three burglaries pulled off in the southwest part of the county Christmas week.

A Better Calf Crop!
Another good reason for feeding T-E Liquid Supplement.

When the calves are on the ground you'll be glad you had T-E Liquid Feed Supplement on the range.

It delivers the protein, vitamins and trace minerals your cows need to produce a better calf crop. It will give them extra energy, make them forage better and enable them to get all the nutrition available from stalks, hay or pasture.

With T-E Liquid Feed Supplement in your feeding program, you can count on more consistent estrus, better conception, easier calving, fewer abortions or stillborns and larger calves dropped and weaned.

Fed free-choice, T-E Liquid Feed takes the guesswork and hard work out of supplement feeding. It's self-rationing. Animals consume what they need—no more, no less. And since one T-E feeder will take care of 75 to 100 head up to ten days, it does away with most of the work.

There are many good reasons for feeding T-E Liquid Supplement that you can count in your calf crop. Talk to your dealer about other reasons why T-E Liquid Feed saves you time and makes you money.

T-E LIQUID FEED SUPPLEMENT IS MADE FROM A PATENTED FORMULA
The basic ingredients of T-E Liquid Feed Supplement are urea, phosphoric acid, molasses, vitamins A, D and E and trace minerals. The urea is chemically inhibited (by the patented formulation with phosphoric acid and molasses) to control the release of nitrogen and pace its conversion into protein for more efficient use by the animal.

Traditional wedding music was played on the organ. The sanctuary was decorated with arrangements of white mums and potted white poinsettias.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore an A-line brocade gown with fitted bodice and long fitted sleeves. The high neckline was accented with a fur collar. The back of the gown fell into a chapel train and was accented with large covered buttons. The gown was designed by the bride and fashioned by the bride's mother.

The veil of bridal illusion was attached to a coif of fur. The tiered illusion cascaded to chapel length, covering the train of the gown.

The bride carried a cascade arrangement of multicolored flowers and a hand made handkerchief made by the groom's grandmother, the late Mrs. Tom Moore of Canyon.

Miss Martha Tuttle, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Richard Burke and Miss Linda Brown, sister of the bridegroom served as bridesmaids.

Traditional organ music was played for the ceremony.

The church was decorated in Christmas greenery. The bride's path to the altar was decorated with bows in the bride's colors and was lighted with vigil lights. The sanctuary was decorated with poinsettias and twin candelabras flanked the sides of the altar.

Bridal attendants were escorted to the front of the sanctuary by the best man and groomsmen.

Miss Mary Anne Baker, sister of the groom, was escorted by Mr. Joe Ed Clements, cousin of the groom. Miss Cory Mentzer was escorted by Dennis Longstreth. Mrs. Barbara Ballard, matron of honor, was escorted by her husband, Mr. Ted Ballard. The maid of honor, Miss Gail Downing was escorted by the best man, Mr. Mark Baker, brother of the groom.

The attendants were dressed in identical floor length dresses of apricot-colored taffeta under a layer of miramist. The dresses were accented with ivory lace at the empire waist, cuffs, and neckline.

The attendants carried nosegays of apricot carnations and baby's breath. Their headdresses were bands of carnations and baby's breath to match the bouquets.

Mr. Kent Clements, cousin of the groom, and Mr. Richard Bryant served as ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, wore a floor length Victorian-styled gown of candlelight. The dress was designed with high neckline, an A-line silhouette, puffed sleeves with wide cuffs and empire waist. The front panel of the gown was designed with tiny tucks centered with dainty self-covered buttons and accented on both sides with delicate Venitian lace and love knots. The skirt of the gown swept to the back into a chapel length train of bridal sheer accented with Venitian lace.

The veil of bridal illusion was attached to a coif of roses and baby's breath and fell to chapel length, covering the train.

Eagles Go Into Conference Play

The Canyon Eagles, sporting a 13-9 record for the season, open conference play here at 8 o'clock Friday night against the Perryton Rangers.

The Eagles are defending district champions.

Coach B. B. Kendrick looks forward to a tough district this season and his charges start with a tough one in Perryton.

Jerry O'Brien, a 6 foot, 5-inch Ranger, was honored as top inside man in the area last year. The Ranger post man, Randy Merkey, is an awesome 6 foot 6.

Coach Kendrick says Dumas is the toughest team in the district this year with a 15-5 record to date. The Demons beat Borger's Bulldogs Tuesday night.

Muleshoe has two 6 foot, 4 boys back this year and the Mules are loaded with experience. Tulia has three starters back.

Levelland has an outstanding boy in sophomore Grand Dukes who stands 6 foot, 5. He is the brother of Mike Dukes who made all-state for the Loboes in 1969.

"They are a capable of beating anyone in the district," said Kendrick of the Loboes.

Kendrick said the district is strong this year and he thinks that the district champion will lose two or more games.

"We have to play Levelland and Dumas on the road the first round and they are going to be tough," Coach Kendrick declared.

He sees Dumas as the strongest team in the district and Perryton second.

Kendrick said the Eagles are short on experience in spite of the fact that 11 seniors are on the squad.

"That's going to be the big difference," he said. "We just don't have the experience."

The Eagles whipped Spearman 58-45 at Spearman Tuesday night. High point man for Canyon was Dorse Pennington with 25 tallies. He hit 12 field goals for 15 tries.

Mike Podzemny scored 14 points and Willie Johnson 11.

Pennington also played a brilliant defensive game. He held Lynx scoring ace, Edgar Womble who usually accounts for 21 points a game, to a measly 6 points in the Tuesday night contest.

The Eagles shot 26 field goals in 53 tries for 49 percent. They had nine turnovers, picked off nine offensive rebounds and 21 defensive rebounds.

The Eagles lost to Hereford in the Muleshoe tournament Saturday 62-77 and went on that night to beat Slaton 73-53 for third place. Hereford won the tournament.

all-around everything.

"He had tremendous coordination. . . he was excellent in basketball. . . being a superlative athlete he could do everything in football well. . . was an excellent student. . . good attitude. . . always willing to better the team."

Logan did not punt for WTSU until his senior year, but went on to become one of the nation's leading punters after he put his mind to it.

"We had trouble in getting him to get across the end zone until his senior year," Kerbel said. "All of a sudden he started scoring at will."

Kerbel's second "star," Duane Thomas, is gaining the reputation in the pros of being able to almost "score at will," and the head coach said it was practically a foregone conclusion.

"Of all the guys we've ever had leave here, if one man had all the requirements it was Thomas," Kerbel said.

Other than weighing 220 pounds, of which 210 is muscle, and being the state high hurdle champion, the coach said Thomas "is one of the smartest football players I have ever coached."

"He is one of the few guys that knew everyone's assignment. . . the guards. . . the center," Kerbel said. "Duane loves football and is very dedicated to football."

The fact Thomas is currently running over opposing players and averaging just short of a zillion yards a game is no great surprise to the coach.

"Duane had a great career with us," he said. "His running with the Cowboys, and Duane will be the first to tell you, is helped by a great offensive line. When we had a good line here he ran well."

Although West Texas State has a slew of ex-football players now playing for money instead of scholarships, including "Mercury" Morris in Miami, the very nature of the Super Bowl focuses attention locally on Logan and Thomas.

Although Logan has eight seasons of experience going with him to Miami, Kerbel said choosing the last man standing if the two ran into each other would be quite a trick.

"Jerry Don's primary responsibility is pass defense and it will be up to the linemen and linebackers to stop Duane most of the time," Kerbel said. "But Duane is a problem for any defensive secondary back. I will say this, if anyone is around that can stop him, Logan can."

Kerbel's pro-type formations and emphasis on "practice till perfect" will continue to churn out pro prospects, but for now all eyes focus on two. Whether it's the Colts or the Cowboys January 17th, WTSU will be ably represented.

JH Tournament Begins Today

Canyon Junior High will be host for a basketball tournament for seventh, eighth and ninth grade teams from over the area beginning today.

Tulia will play Alamo Catholic at 12:30 today in the high school gym and Stanton will play Canyon white at 7:30 today in the junior high school gym.

The tournament runs through Saturday.

Beginning with the eighth grade bracket Canyon purple will play Dimmitt at 12:30 today in the high school gym and Boys Ranch will meet Dumas at 3:15 in the junior high school gym.

Tulia will play Alamo Catholic at 3:15 in the high school gym and Stanton will play Canyon white in the high school gym at 2 o'clock.

Seventh grade action will see Canyon purple playing Dimmitt at 4:30 o'clock today in junior high school gym. Boys Ranch will play Dumas in the same gym at 2 o'clock Friday.

Tulia will meet Alamo Catholic at 3:15 in the junior high gym and Stanton will play Canyon white at 2 o'clock Thursday in the junior high gym.

Trophies will be given for first, second and consolation. Coach Willie McAlpin is in charge of the tournament.

spiracy to commit burglary, felony theft of a ladder from West Texas Utilities Company and for resisting arrest by firearms.

Wasson said the three also are charged with several misdemeanor offenses including carrying prohibited weapons and that Mrs. Lindsey is charged with possession of a dangerous drug.

Lindsey and his wife remain in Jones County jail at Anson in lieu of $75,000 bond each. Hicks at first was placed under a similar bond but it later was reduced to $4,500 and he was released after posting it.

Two masked bandits — one believed to have been a woman — walked into the Happy First State Bank Oct. 8 brandishing .38 caliber pistols and took about $2,500.

The bank robbery was pulled off about 12:35 while the streets of Happy were deserted during noon hour.

In the bank at the time were President Carl Small, Cashier Bob Pulsipher and Teller Gussie Barnett.

FBI agents said the robbers took $2,222 in currency, $100 in dimes and $50 in pennies.

The car used in the bank robbery was stolen in Lubbock the previous day and shortly after the robbery was abandoned at a vacant house on Wayside Road about 2 miles east of U.S. 287.

The robbers were surmised to have switched vehicles at the vacant farm house and then to have made their get away undetected.

License plates on the abandoned car had been stolen in Snyder.

There was evidence pointing to one of the pair being a woman. A witness said one of the robbers pulled off his mask to reveal long hair as the get away car sped away from the scene.

Officers reported that there were five cigarette butts in the ash tray of the recovered car. Four of them were smeared with lipstick.

Randall and Swisher County Sheriff's Departments as well as the FBI and Texas Rangers have joined in the investigation.

at a later meeting.

Mrs. Audrey Bruse told the court she was not satisfied with the color of a file cabinet for her office offered by the lowest bidder.

The low bidder was Southwest Stationery with a bid of $177. Next lowest bidder was Russell's Stationery with a file also not suitable in color to Mrs. Bruse. Russell's bid was $199.

The high bidder, General Offfice Supply with a bid of $216, had the only file cabinet of the three which suited Mrs. Bruse in color.

She told the court that it was the only one of the three which matched the color of her desk—also supplied by General.

"You eliminate everyone but General when you tie it down to that color," declared Commissioner Glenn Dowlen.

"It sort of locks us in," commented Fulgenzi.

The court agreed to delay a decision on the matter.

The court approved bonds for county officials and accepted the reappointment by Judge E.E. "Gene" Jordan of Mrs. Betty Hodges as county auditor at $6,540 annual salary—a 10 percent pay increase.

Dowlen said this is the first pay raise for Mrs. Hodges in the past three years.

Col. E.L. Booch, district probation officer, appeared before the court to ask that the county participate in the $72,252.40 budget for his office in the amount of $26,805.51.

He had requested participation of $26,311.55 last June but noted that pay raises for personnel in his office including himself made the increase in budget necessary.

Pay for his assistants was increased from $584 a month to $625 while his own salary was increased from $654 to $750. Secretaries received a $2 pay hike from $493 to $495.

Booch said that even with the increases he and his staff are not being paid as well as many officers performing corresponding duties elsewhere in the Panhandle.

Booch said Randall County is being asked to foot 37.1 percent of the bill for probation office services for Potter, Randall and Armstrong Counties while the case load for Randall is only 32 percent of the total.

He noted, however, that Randall County has never been asked to pay any of the transportation costs for the department or for any of the furniture for its offices.

Booch said some of the county's cost for the probation office is being rebated out of fees charged probationers.

"I think you're doing a real fine job," commented Butler.

"We're happy," said Dowlen.

Judge Pond said the budget request would be discussed further at a later date.

The court tabled hiring of a court reporter for the 181st District Court. Judge Pond said personnel policies would be discussed at a regular meeting of the court next Monday as would employe salaries.

Coach Dunny Goode is high in Tinsley's praise.

"Whichever school he decides to attend, he will do an excellent job both in the class room and one the football field," Coach Goode declared.

pipes Wednesday as the near-record freezing caused frozen water pipes and joints.

Willie Weiser, Canyon Water and Sewer Superintendent, said three main pipes had broken Tuesday night and two Wednesday morning.

"It is not really a question of the pipes freezing and breaking," he said. "The ground is so cold it is causing the cast iron pipes to retract. The frost line is going deeper and deeper."

Weiser said "a lot of water meters" had burst, but not an appreciable amount more than was normal during the colder parts of the year.

The motor in the furnace of the new addition of the Randall County Courthouse malfunctioned Wednesday, leaving the pursuit of justice a chilly business. A bearing apparently "froze" in the motor.

Additional snow was expected late Wednesday night and early Thursday morning as Canyon settled down to what has become a "White Middle-of-January."

amount of students in academic trouble is inevitable."

Dr. Juniper said the figures for WTSU "fall fairly well in line with what I know other institutions are doing."

A student at West Texas State University is placed on academic probation when he or she fails to complete with a "C" average nine semester hours of work, if the student is enrolled full-time.

If the student on probation fails to improve his grades the following semester, he is temporarily suspended from the university.

47th Court Sets Docket

The first three months of the new year will see a busy 47th District Court, as Judge E. E. "Gene" Jordan Monday set nine cases for trial, including eight narcotics cases.

A trial date of March 29 was set for Bryan Anthony Thomas and Mike Patrick, both charged with sale of a narcotic drug. Joseph Jacobs, charged with fondling and sodomy, is also set for trial March 29.

Grand Jury Is Sworn

The twelve men and women who will comprise the January term of the 47th District Court grand jury were seated Monday and sworn by District Judge E.E. "Gene" Jordan.

The jurors will serve from what was the first Monday in January until the new grand jury term begins April 26.

The jurors are R.E. Underwood, James M. Reed, Ross Glaze, Jerome Stocking, Mrs. Frank Storm Jr., Mrs. D.B. Barker, Carl A. Small, Emma Hardaway, William Brown, William O'Grady, T.H. Stringer and Charles Eubanks.

Girl Eagles Lose To Spearman

Canyon High School girls lost to Spearman 53-47 Tuesday night at Spearman.

Coach Bob Schneider said he thought his girl Eagles played their best game of the year up to the closing minutes of the ball game.

"We had three turnovers in the final two minutes," he said, "and you can't make mistakes like that and win when you are playing a good team."

Leta Gill was high for Canyon with 20 points. Lynette Slack scored 18 and Kris Tucker 9.

"We outscored them from the field," Schneider declared. Canyon shot 22 baskets as compared to 21 for Spearman.

But Spearman controlled the ball more than Canyon. Spearman shot 40 times while the girl Eagles put the ball up only 24 times.

As has happened before this year, the ball game was won from the free throw line. The Eagles got only six free throws and made three of them while the Lynxettes shot 11 free throw baskets out of 17 tries.

"I hope we can profit from our mistakes," said Coach Schneider.

The girl Eagles play Silverton here Friday night at 6:30 in a prelude to the conference opener between Canyon's boy Eagles and the Perryton Rangers.

that their children may be eligible for free or reduced price lunches may make application to the principal of the school attended by the child or children involved.

Copies of application forms are available from the schools. Applications must be completed, signed by an adult member of the family and sent to the school principal.

"Such applications will be reviewed promptly and within ten days the family will be notified in writing of the decision made," Jacobs went on. "All information provided on the application will be held in strictest confidence."

The superintendent said any unusual circumstance or hardship which affects a family's ability to pay for school lunches will also be considered. As examples of these he noted prolonged illness in the family, unexpected expenses due to fire, flood or any other disaster of this nature, seasonal unemployment and similar emergency situations.

"If a family is not satisfied with the decision made on an application, it may request a hearing to appeal the decision," Jacobs declared. "This request may be made orally or in writing to the superintendent at his office."

Jacobs said he would review the application with the family.

"The school district's formal free and reduced price policy statement and the procedure that will be followed when a decision is appealed are on file in each principal's office and may be reviewed by any interested person," he asserted.

Jacobs said students receiving free lunches have been encouraged to pay for them by working around the school. He recently told the school board that this policy will be continued.

about nationally."

"I think we should vote," Connie Brazzil stated. "I wish they would expand the law so we would be able to vote in all elections. I think we are informed about the issues through our civics and government classes."

"Most aren't that informed," Rebecca Haley pointed out, "A lot will vote, but a lot won't."

"I think that since we have the right to vote...that we should," Janna Johnson said, "but I hope they don't let us vote in state elections because we're not well enough informed on all the candidates."

"I have mixed emotions," Robbie Ramsey admitted. "I think it's great that we have the right to vote in the federal elections. It's hard to believe that it's really my turn to vote...you know, that I'm old enough.

"We are considered adults under the law, we go out on our own, and work," she continued, "and I think we will find out about the candidates on our own...like our parents do...we always know the issues."

Anita Ham stated, "I think most 18 year olds are able to vote. Some are irresponsible and won't register, but I'm looking forward to it."

"I think it's good," Jan Westfall stated, "because it makes us more aware of our responsibilities, earlier. We become aware of the problems of the world."

"I don't think you should vote if you don't know what's going on," Teddy Trice pointed out. "You should vote for a certain candidate because you want to; not because someone else is. I think we should vote in state and local elections, not federal, because we know what those offices do."

"Most 18 year olds are not informed on national issues," Frank Belcher stated. "The state is closer to us and we can see what's going on. I think voting federally is good, but that we should start with state and local elections."

"I think 18 year olds will take advantage of their right to vote," he continued, "but I'm not sure they'll vote logically."

"The Texas Constitution lists under persons not eligible to vote idiots, lunatics, paupers, felons, and persons under 21 years of age," Governor Smith pointed out to the Texas Legislature January 23, 1969. "In the certain knowledge that there are many more builders than wreckers in the Texas youth community, I would like to see these young people removed from that category. Therefore, I recommend that you submit an amendment to this section providing that the legislature may set by statute a minimum voting age lower than 21 and not lower than 18, if it desires to do so."

So far, the Texas Legislature has declined to change the voting age for Texas youth.

Only in Alaska, Georgia and Kentucky are 18 year olds allowed to vote in elections across the board. Montana and Massachusetts allows persons to vote at 19 and Hawaii, Maine and Nebraska allows residents to vote at 20.

Voting patterns have not changed noticeably in the states allowing the 18 year olds to voice their opinions at the voting polls.

Giving women the right to vote fifty years ago saw no change in the voting patterns, since women voted as variously as the men.

It is not expected that the 18 to 20 year olds will vote in a bloc either.

Some expect the 18 year old to vote more on emotion than logic, perhaps this is one reason that both major parties are allotting a portion of their advertising budget to attract the under 21 year old vote, perhaps it is for a different reason.

In any case, the 18 year old is expected to defend the country, pay taxes, income taxes, and in some cases property taxes. He may marry, take on the responsibilities of a home and family or choose to further his education. Now, he may also vote.

Just what will be the national effect of this youthful vote? The answer is forthcoming in the Presidential year of 1972.

Buffs Open Road Trip Tonight In Houston

West Texas State, with big victories in its last three games, opens an important three-game road trip Thursday night in Houston.

The Buffaloes, fresh from a 107-66 triumph over Texas-Arlington Monday night, take on Houston Baptist first and the strong Houston Cougars Saturday night in Hofheinz Pavilion. Then the Buffs move to Pan American for a Monday night contest at Edinburg.

"We cannot afford to look past Houston Baptist to the Houston game or we will start off the trip with a defeat," West Texas Coach Dennis Walling said.

"Also we must fight the possibility of a let down after playing Houston."

Of the three games, Houston, of course, is the big power. The Cougars have won eight of 11 games and whipped Dayton 106-80 Monday night.

Houston's three setbacks came against nationally ranked teams—Southern California, in the finals of the Los Angeles Classic; Kansas, in the finals of the Jayhawk Classic; and Tennessee, in the second game of the season.

The Cougars have since avenged the Tennessee loss and they have also turned back Villanova and Oregon, both rated nationally at the time.

Houston is led by 6-foot-7 All-American candidate Dwight Jones, who is averaging 16.5 points and 12.1 rebounds per game. Poo Welch and Jess Hickman are next in the scoring race with 15.4 and 14.8 points, respectively.

West Texas State takes a three-game winning streak and a five-won, two-lost season to Houston Baptist, now 6-5 after losing to Eastern Illinois 88-68 Monday night.

The Huskies are averaging about 74 points a game and hitting approximately 48 per cent of their shots from the field. The 20-point loss at Eastern Illinois was the largest of the season.

Against the only common opponent, Eastern New Mexico, of the campaign, West Texas beat the Greyhounds by 10 points in a slow-down game while Houston Baptist won by 15.

Eddie Brown, 6-6 junior, paces the Huskies in scoring with a 17-point average. Jim Skaggs, a sophomore, is next with 15.

Pan American, with a 6-2 won-lost mark, one of the best in Texas, has lost only to Florida State 95-90 and Lamar Tech 106-96.

The Broncos offer a balance offense, averaging 48.4 per cent from the field and 61.2 from the free throw line.

Calvin Oliver, 6-7 forward, is connecting on nearly 60 per cent of his field goal attempts and is averaging 24.6 points a game. He and 6-8 center Frank Lorthridge are averaging 13 rebounds a game.

Lorthridge, with 18.6 points, and two others are averaging in double figures.

Steve Davidson, Ray Golson and Ralph Houston, the Buffaloes top three scorers, led the rout of Texas-Arlington. Davidson had 20 points and 14 rebounds. Houston contributed 18 points and Golson, the club's leading scorer with a 22.1 average, came in third with 14.

The one-sided triumph also served to help West Texas State to up its scoring to 81 points a game, its rebounding percentage to 60.4 and shooting average to 39.3.

The 107 points was a season high and the 41-point winning margin was one of the highest in recent years.

West Texas State meets New Mexico State at the Amarillo Civic Coliseum Jan. 14 in the first home game after the current road trip.

Tickets for the contest are on sale at the athletic ticket office on campus.

The sophomore girls will play in the Tulia tournament Saturday.

Canyon is hosting a junior high tournament which began Wednesday and runs through Friday.

City Dads In Meet Tonight

Canyon city commission Thursday night will consider an offer by Randall County to exchange communications and jail facilities for rural fire protection.

Last week commissioners court made this offer to Canyon in exchange for rural fire protection south of Hollywood Road.

The county currently is paying the city $100 each for rural fire calls. The department answered 89 such calls in 1970.

County officials say communication and jail facilities furnished the city by the county is worth $12,000 annually. The city currently is paying only $150 a month for these services and facilities.

At the same time the county offered the city of Amarillo $3,000 as a flat fee for fire protection north of Hollywood Road. The city of Amarillo has not yet accepted the proposal and has been asking for $250 a call while estimating its actual cost to be $565 a call.

The city commission also will consider a request by Canyon Church of Christ for annexation of a two-acre tract just east of the city limits.

The commission will meet at 7 o'clock in the Community Center Building.
